Dear colleagues

College of Nursing

CON is a constituent unit of Pravara Institute of Medical Sciences (Deemed to be University) established in 1986 located at the blissful rural village of Loni, Ahmednagar District, Maharashtra. Our vision is to improve quality of life of rural people, with mission to serve through preparing competent nursing graduates who are competent to serve globally.

Trained Nurses Association of India

TNAI was established in 1908; it is a national organization of nurse professionals at different levels upholding every way the dignity and honour of profession, promoting a sense of esprit de corps and welfare among nurses. Since 107 glorious years, TNAI is marching ahead with commitment and dedication. Maharashtra State branch specifically caters to the 'Florence Nightingales' from this land of valour and legacy of warriors, who are passionate in their profession.

Nurses are health care specialists of 'Now and Future'. In order to envisage positive outcomes, every nursing fraternity should safely conquer 'global changes' on patient management patterns / policies in all spectrums of specialisations including hospital management as a leader and as a global citizen. This new role of patient navigators precedes successful clinical practice innovations knitted with research evidence & progressive training.

Invitation

This conference is in this perspective a sensitization effort by embracing beliefs inherent in nursing profession to own it globally in days to come. A collaborative approach is thus initiated by Trained Nurses Association of India (TNAI), Maharashtra State branch along with College of Nursing (CON), Loni Bk. This conference will benefit participants to develop a consensus statement on fostering global social responsibility in nursing practice, education and leadership.

This conference plans to hold scientific sessions with didactic panel discussions and hands on training that are performed everyday. We look forward to your gracious presence and contribution to this unique workshop. We assure you that every possible effort is being made to see that your visit to Loni proves to be meaningful, productive and memorable.

Aim

We aim to build in a culture among nursing fraternity to foster knowledge, attitude and skill splendidly to execute quality care in their professional pathway globally, with a faith to own nursing profession by self in future.
